EXEMPTION

Application No. H25/2014

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by the Ocean Grove Bowling Club Inc. (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to organise, operate and advertise the specified bowling tournaments in which participation is to be limited to men only or women only (the exempt conduct). The specified bowling tournaments are as follows:

1. Women-only tournaments:
  - a. Ocean Grove Open Day
  - b. Ocean Grove Classic
  - c. Ladies Club events, including pairs, 100 Up, 21 Up, Triples, Veterans, Minor Championship and Club Championship
2. Men-only tournaments:
  - a. Ocean Grove Classic 4's
  - b. Hayden's monthly Triples
  - c. Men's Club events, including pairs, 100 Up, 21 Up, Triples, Veterans, Minor Championship and Club Championship

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Adele Margaret Ryan, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A copy of the application was sent by the Tribunal to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (the Commission). The Commission did not seek leave to intervene in the proceeding.
- The applicant has been a registered bowling club since 1952. Currently, 85% of its bowls events are mixed. Of its membership, 72% comprise married couples who enjoy the opportunity to play in the same events. However, when the applicant club was unified it was noted that many ladies ceased playing bowls and left the applicant because they did not wish to play bowls with or against men. Similarly, there are men who refused to play with or against women and, as a consequence, a number left the applicant club. Pennant team selection is based on ability but some men and women no longer make themselves available for those teams. The applicant wishes to provide opportunities for men and women to continue to play bowls. In addition, many players prefer to play in competitive single gender events.

- Many of the above tournaments are longstanding. The women-only Ocean Grove Classic commenced some 35 years ago. The women-only club events noted in item c. above commenced in 1956. The men's events are also longstanding. The Ocean Grove Classic 4's commenced in 1986. That tournament is recognised as the biggest men's 4's bowling event in Victoria. The Hayden's Monthly Triples is in its 30th year. The men-only club events noted in item c. commenced in 1955. Businesses in Ocean Grove contribute funds which are pooled and then allocated as prize money to the various events.

- No exception or current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct and in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.

- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men or women who would wish to play in an event limited to the other gender. In the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 April 2019.

INTERIM EXEMPTION
Application No. H53/2014

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by the Brotherhood of St Laurence (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant and its sub-licensees to:

- in employing persons as home tutors, give preference to parents or carers of children participating in its Home Interaction Program for Parents and Youngsters (HIPPY) or parents or carers of candidates for HIPPY or parents or carers of children who have previously participated in HIPPY; and
  - to advertise those matters
- (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Marian Pettit and having had regard to an earlier exemption which will expire on 30 March 2014, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an interim exemption from sections 16, 18, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct until the application is finally determined.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is licensed to operate HIPPY in Australia. HIPPY is a model which provides parents with the tools and support they need to teach their own children in their home. It originated in 1969 in Israel and has been replicated in 12 countries.
- In Australia, HIPPY is a two-year home-based parenting and early childhood enrichment program that empowers parents and carers to be their child's first teacher. The program builds the confidence and skills of parents and carers to create a positive learning environment to prepare their child for school. The program also offers participating parents and carers a supported pathway to employment and local community leadership in their role as a HIPPY Home Tutor. The program is targeted at disadvantaged areas with a high proportion of families with young children.
- Each program location is staffed by a tertiary qualified coordinator and a team of Home Tutors. Home Tutors are past or current parents participating in the program who live in the local community. The Home Tutors are paid employees and receive training. Home Tutors schedule regular contact with parents and carers to work through the program activities in the family's home. Role play is the method used by Home Tutors to facilitate the understanding of the parents and carers about how to do the activities. As the Home Tutors are past or current participants in HIPPY they are often better able to relate to the families with whom they work and they become role models for the parents because they are in the same role and have undertaken the program themselves. The result is that participating parents are encouraged and in addition, the Home Tutors are trained and develop their own skills and confidence to improve their own lives.
- Previous exemptions have been granted to the applicant in similar terms, the last of which will expire on 30 March 2014. No exception applies to the exempt conduct and, in the absence of an exemption, after 30 March 2014, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of persons who are not and have not been parents or carers of children participating in HIPPY who would wish to be employed. I am satisfied that for the purposes of this interim exemption, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an interim exemption from the operation of sections 16, 18, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 July 2014.
