INTERIM EXEMPTION

Application No. H49/2016

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by State of Victoria (Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning) and the Secretary of the Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning (the Applicants) for an exemption from sections 16, 18, 21, 105, 107 and 182 of the Act.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application and having heard from the Applicants today, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant a further interim exemption until the ongoing application is finally determined.

Pursuant to section 89(5)(a) of the Act, an interim exemption is granted to the Applicant from the operation of sections 16, 18, 21, 105, 107 and 182 of the Act in respect of the 'exempt conduct' for the period 7 August 2016 (the day after the expiry of an interim exemption granted on 1 April 2016) to 30 April 2017.

1. For the purposes of this interim exemption, the 'exempt conduct' in which the Applicants may engage is as follows:
 - (a) request nationality and country of origin information from current and prospective employees and contract workers, and employees of other Victorian agencies, who have or are to have access to ITAR-controlled material;
 - (b) take a person's nationality and country of origin into account in determining who should be offered employment or contract work on projects requiring access to ITAR-controlled material and when making decisions as to the participation of employees or contract workers in such work;
 - (c) maintain records of the nationalities and countries of origin of all persons who have or may have access to ITAR-controlled material;
 - (d) ensure that ITAR-controlled material is disclosed only to persons who are authorised by ITAR controls to receive it;
 - (e) impose limitations or prohibitions on persons of particular nationalities and countries of origin having access to ITAR-controlled material;
 - (f) redeploy employees affected by the exemption to alternative roles not requiring access to ITAR-controlled material;
 - (g) disclose to USA-based exporters and to the USA government the nationalities and countries of origin of all employees and contract workers who will have access to ITAR-controlled material in the performance of their work; and
 - (h) establish security systems which will prevent the unauthorised re-export or re-transfer of ITAR-controlled material.

The terms 'employee' and 'contract worker' each have the meaning given in the Act.

'ITAR-controlled material' means the Fire and Safety Equipment owned and operated by the Applicants that contains defence articles including technical data that are deemed 'unclassified' under the International Traffic in Arms Regulation 22 CFR § 120 (2003) (USA) (ITAR) and which are subject to US export controls.

'Fire and Safety Equipment' means:

- (a) 2 x multi sensor imaging systems (L3 Wescam MX10);
- (b) 2 x aircraft scanners (Daedalus Thermal Linescan);
- (c) 3 x night vision goggles; and
- (d) Any replacement or upgraded version of the equipment referred to in (a), (b) and (c) above, owned and/or operated by the Applicants during the period of the exemption that contains ITAR-controlled material.

Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013

NOTICE OF INDEXED BENEFIT LEVELS AND OTHER AMOUNTS
IN ACCORDANCE WITH DIVISION 1 OF PART 13 OF THE

WORKPLACE INJURY REHABILITATION AND COMPENSATION ACT 2013

The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 came into operation on 1 July 2014. The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 recast the Accident Compensation Act 1985 and the Accident Compensation (WorkCover Insurance) Act 1993 into a single Act that is simpler and easier to use.

Division 1 of Part 13 of the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 provides for the indexation of weekly payments, weekly pensions for dependants and certain other amounts stipulated under the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013.

Section 542 of the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 stipulates that weekly payments are varied on 1 July each year in line with the movement in the average weekly total earnings for all employees in Victoria between the two previous corresponding reference periods, using the latest figures published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics as at 15 June following the previous reference period. Weekly payments are indexed on the anniversary of the entitlement to weekly payments.

The average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the December quarter of 2014 and the December quarter 2015 changed from $1056.80 to $1073.70 which is an increase of 1.60%. Section 159 of the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 provides that where the amount of average weekly earnings has negative growth in a financial year, any increase in a subsequent financial year will be adjusted to reflect the previous year's negative growth. Allowing for the negative growth that applied for the 2015/2016 financial year, the applicable increase for the 2016/2017 financial year is 0.90%.

The Consumer Price Index between the December quarter of 2014 and the December quarter of 2015 increased from 106.3 to 108.3 which is an increase of 1.88%.

Accident Compensation Act 1985NOTICE OF INDEXED BENEFIT LEVELS AND OTHER AMOUNTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH DIVISION 2D OF PART IV OF THE ACCIDENT COMPENSATION ACT 1985

The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 came into operation on 1 July 2014. The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 recast the Accident Compensation Act 1985 and the Accident Compensation (WorkCover Insurance) Act 1993 into a single Act that is simpler and easier to use. The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 also amended the Accident Compensation Act 1985.

Division 2D of Part IV of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 provides for the indexation of weekly payments, weekly pensions for dependants and certain other amounts stipulated under the Accident Compensation Act 1985. Section 631 of the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 substituted sections 100 to 100C of the Accident Compensation Act 1985. Section 100 of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 stipulates that weekly payments are varied on 1 July each year in line with the movement in the average weekly total earnings for all employees in Victoria between the two previous corresponding reference periods, using the latest figures published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics as at 15 June following the previous reference period. Weekly payments are indexed on the anniversary of the entitlement to weekly payments, or on the deemed anniversary date which for the purposes of this section is 1 July.

The average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the December quarter of 2014 and the December quarter 2015 changed from $1056.80 to $1073.70 which is an increase of 1.60%. Section 91EA of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 provides that where the amount of average weekly earnings has negative growth in a financial year, any increase in a subsequent financial year will be adjusted to reflect the previous year's negative growth. Allowing for the negative growth that applied for the 2015/2016 financial year, the applicable increase for the 2016/2017 financial year is 0.90%.

Following legislative changes in December 1997 some amounts are indexed by the rise in Consumer Price Index.

The Consumer Price Index between the December quarter of 2014 and the December quarter of 2015 increased from 106.3 to 108.3 which is an increase of 1.88%.

Workers Compensation Act 1958NOTICE OF NEW BENEFIT RATES PAYABLE IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 9 AND SECTION 11

The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 came into operation on 1 July 2014. The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 recast the Accident Compensation Act 1985 and the Accident Compensation (WorkCover Insurance) Act 1993 into a single Act that is simpler and easier to use. The Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 also amended the Workers Compensation Act 1958.

Section 9(3) of the Workers Compensation Act 1958 provides for rates of compensation to be adjusted on 1 July in any year in line with movements in the Australian male average weekly earnings between the December quarter of the two preceding years as published by the Australian Statistician at 15 June in each respective year.

Section 648(3) of the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 amended the definition of average weekly earnings in section 9(5) of the Workers Compensation Act 1958. The definition provides that average weekly earnings means the average weekly total earnings of all male employees in Victoria in original terms published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics as at 15 June in the preceding financial year in respect of the most recent reference period ending on or before 31 December in that preceding financial year.

The Victorian male average weekly earnings for the December quarter of 2014 and 2015 were $1,281.80 and $1287.20 respectively, an increase of 0.42%. Section 9(5A) of the Workers Compensation Act 1958 stipulates that where a variation to a weekly payment would have the effect of reducing the amount, the variation is deemed not to have taken effect, and that any variation to a weekly payment has effect as an increase only to the extent to which the amount of an increase exceeds the amount that it would have been reduced in the previous year. This means that as a result of the 1.06% decrease in Victorian male average weekly earnings for the 2013/2014 financial year, amounts calculated with reference to average weekly earnings in the 2015/2016 financial year will be unchanged for the 2016/2017 financial year.

Notice is hereby given that calculations in accordance with the said section produce the following rates of compensation which are payable, on and from 1 July 2005 instead of the amounts specified in section 9 of the said Act, in the clauses under the heading 'The Clauses Referred To'.
