EXEMPTION

Application No. H327/2019

Horsham City Bowls Club Inc. ('the club') applied to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal under to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) for an exemption to enable the applicant to continue to conduct a men's sets play pairs tournament as an event in which only males compete, to select and admit only male competitors and to advertise the event as an all-male event.

Upon reading the application and the affidavit by club treasurer, Mr Ronald Goudie, and hearing his evidence at the hearing, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 65, 71 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The two-day tournament is the only male-only event in the club's calendar. All other competitions are open to persons of either sex.
- The club has conducted the men's sets play pairs tournament each year close to Easter for 23 years. The tournament is very well patronised and attracts players from a range of Victorian and South Australian clubs. The tournament is important for the generation of club funds from sponsorship, competitor's fees and bar takings, roughly $5000 per year. These funds benefit the whole club, including female club members.
- The club has not previously applied for an exemption but has applied now as a demonstration of its sensitivity to equal opportunity for players and members. The club's constitution ensures equal participation in the club by persons of both genders. The Board of Management offered members a women's only event to compensate for this men's only event, but the members declined at this time noting that they wished to make different arrangements.
- The Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission declined to intervene in the proceedings.
- The Tribunal is not currently satisfied that an exception applies to the exempt conduct. Accordingly, in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). If the exemption is granted, females who wish to participate in the competition may be lawfully excluded. This limits the rights of females wishing to compete to equal and effective protection against discrimination. However, noting all other competition is open competition and that the funds generated have a positive impact on the survival of the club for the benefit of all members, I am satisfied that for the purposes of this exemption, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter and that its purpose is consistent with the objectives of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 65, 71 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to be published in the Gazette on 12 December 2019. This exemption will remain in force from the date of publication until 11 December 2024.

EXEMPTION

Application No. H351/2019

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Women's Health Victoria (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to:

- (a) advertise for and employ women only; and
 - (b) provide services to volunteers who are women only.
- (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Dianne Hill, the evidence given by Dianne Hill and Dina Lynch at the hearing and having had regard to seven (7) previous exemptions, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is a state-wide women's health promotion, advocacy and support service run by women for women. It is one of the nine regional and three state-wide services funded as part of the Victoria's Women's Health Program. Various programs derive funding from various government sources.

- The applicant has developed specialised knowledge relating to the impact of gender as a determinant of health across all female health issues. Its priority areas are:
 - sexual and reproductive health;
 - prevention of violence against women;
 - women and cancer;
 - mental health and body image; and
 - women's equality.
- The applicant delivers direct health services for women and girls, including Counterpart, a peer support service for women with cancer and 1800 My Options, an information phoneline providing information about contraception, pregnancy options and sexual health.
- The applicant's services include advocacy, building knowledge, data collection and analysis, developing partnerships with community and government to promote women's health and wellbeing, and providing leadership, support and resources to other women's health services.
- The applicant currently has around 20 employees who undertake a range of roles including dealing with management, administration, policy development, training and projects. The applicant operates from two locations. It is common for all staff to take telephone calls from women seeking advice and information about matters which are often personal and potentially embarrassing. The women who contact the applicant expect it to be staffed by women only and are more likely to prefer advice and assistance from other women. Women who are comfortable receiving advice and assistance from men or women, tend to access mainstream services.
- The applicant trains volunteers to assist in the delivery of some services. To the extent that the delivery of training to volunteers amounts to a service within the meaning of the Act and because all volunteers will be female the exemption applies in the area of the services it delivers to volunteers.
- The most recent exemption expired on 30 September 2019. An interim exemption was issued on from 3 October 2019 to operate until 31 December 2019. I am not satisfied that an exception applies to the exempt conduct, however I am satisfied that it is appropriate that an exemption be granted. In the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.

- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men who wish to be employed by the applicant and/or participate as volunteers of the applicant. I am satisfied that in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption will be published in the 12 December 2019 edition of the Gazette. It will remain in effect from 1 January 2020 (when the current interim exemption expires) until 27 November 2024.
