EXEMPTION

Application No. H27/2019

Portarlington Bowls Club Inc applied to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal under section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) for an exemption to enable the applicant to, from time to time: organise and operate a two-day men-only bowls tournament and advertise that matter (the conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of the Club Secretary, Mary Virgato, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct during the period of the exemption.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- An exemption in identical terms was granted by this Tribunal on 28 July 2014 and will expire on 6 August 2019. The nature of the tournament has not changed since that exemption was granted.
- The tournament has been conducted annually since 2006 and is held in November each year. Around twenty-eight teams compete, drawing bowlers from across Victoria. The tournament and the application for an exemption is endorsed by all club members.

- The applicant conducts a women's tournament each year, which is the subject of the decision in Portarlington Bowls Club Exemption (Human Rights) [2018] VCAT 1571. Outside of these two gender specific tournaments, members of the club of any gender have opportunities to bowl on all other days of the year.
- The Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission was notified of the application and did not seek to intervene.
- I am not currently satisfied that an exception applies to the exempt conduct. Accordingly, in the absence of an exemption (or when the current exemption expires) the exempt conduct would otherwise amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of women who may wish to compete in the tournament. I am satisfied that for the purposes of this exemption, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from 7 August 2019 to 6 August 2024.
