Road Management Act 2004

REVIEW OF ROAD MANAGEMENT PLAN

In accordance with section 54(5) of the Road Management Act 2004 (Act), the Gannawarra Shire Council (Council) gives notice that it has conducted a review of its Road Management Plan.

The purpose of the review, consistent with the role, functions and responsibilities of Council as a road authority under the Act, is to ensure that the standards in relation to, and the priorities to be given to, the inspection, maintenance and repair of the roads and the classes of road to which the Council's Road Management Plan applies are safe, efficient and appropriate for use by the community served by the Council.

The review applied to all of the roads and classes of roads to which the Road Management Plan applies.

A copy of the Council's current Road Management Plan and reviewed Road Management Plan may be inspected at Council's Offices – Patchell Plaza, 47 Victoria Street, Kerang 3579, or 23–25 King Edward Street, Cohuna 3568, or accessed online on Council's website, www.gsc.vic.gov.au

ROAD MANAGEMENT PLAN REVIEW

In accordance with section 54 (5) of the Road Management Act 2004 (the 'Act') and the Road Management (General) Regulations 2016 (the 'Regulations'), Maribyrnong City Council (the 'Council') gives notice that at its Meeting on 15 June 2021, the review process has been conducted and completed.

Pursuant to a decision made by the authorised delegate of Council to commence the statutory review process, such consultation and engagement (including with internal Council departments and external stakeholders) as was considered necessary to effectively conduct the review was commenced. Following the review, it has been found and concluded that the current Road Management Plan of Council is a satisfactory document for Council to rely upon in the continuing performance of its road management functions.

Council has considered, with its current Road Management Plan, that –

- the standards in relation to, and the priorities to be given to, the inspection, maintenance and repair of the roads and classes of road to which the current Road Management Plan are both reasonable and appropriate; and
- the standards, in the form of Council's inspection frequency, intervention requirements and response times, are considered reasonable having regard to the appropriate policy and budgetary settings in which the plan is to be considered.

A copy of Council's reviewed Road Management Plan and related Council report can be viewed on Council's website and in the Council Meeting 15 June 2021 Minutes, respectively, or may be inspected at the Maribyrnong City Council, Council Office at Corner of Napier and Hyde Streets, Footscray, Victoria 3011.

HUMAN RIGHTS LIST EXEMPTION

Application No. H111/2021

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Harkaway Public Hall Committee Inc (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to engage in the conduct defined below and to advertise that matter.

The conduct is to enable the applicant to refuse to permit occupation of the Harkaway Hall by any group consisting predominantly of people aged 22 years or under, for the purpose of a party or similar function, if the applicant:

- (a) has informed the prospective hirer of the terms of this exemption; and
- (b) has given the prospective hirer a reasonable opportunity to provide information relevant to this exemption; and

- (c) is satisfied that the prospective hirer has not taken or, in the view of the applicant, is unable to take or does not intend to take reasonable steps to:
- (i) ensure that the group is adequately supervised by an adequate number of people whom the applicant considers can supervise the group effectively; and
 - (ii) ensure the adequate provision of security for the function; and
 - (iii) prevent uninvited people (commonly known as ‘gatecrashers’) from attending; and
 - (iv) provide safe and adequate transport for those attending away from the Harkaway area within a reasonable time at the end of the function
- (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Philip John Wild, Secretary of the Harkaway Public Hall Committee, and his oral evidence provided in the Directions Hearings on 18 June 2021 and 29 July 2021, and the written material in support of the application, together with earlier exemptions granted by this Tribunal in similar terms, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 50, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct. The Tribunal notes:

- The Tribunal has granted previous exemptions to the applicant on similar terms (A232/2002, A202/2005, A160/2011 and H54/2015). The reason for the initial application for an exemption was the events attended predominantly by people aged 22 years or under that became uncontrolled drunken affairs, leading to concerns about the personal safety of Harkaway residents, property damage, and real concerns about the safety of young people at events which had inadequate supervision, security, and transport arrangements. This was due to the unique Harkaway village environment, and the lack of public transport, taxis, footpaths, lighting and the dangers of walking on roads at night when leaving the village. Since the first exemption was granted, these issues have greatly resolved.
- The circumstances surrounding this application are the same as for the previous exemptions. The purpose of the exemption is to ensure that the Harkaway Hall is used in a manner consistent with the interests of the residents of Harkaway and in a way which minimises the risk to the young people attending functions.
- The applicant provided information in relation to events at the Harkaway Hall over the period of the previous exemption. There have been fifty-one events, not counting regular bookings for programs such as karate classes and exercise classes. Thirteen events involved people aged 22 years and under. Only one event occurred where the Harkaway Public Hall Committee was misled by a booking, and the event was attended by a large number of unsupervised people aged 22 years or under and a repeat of many of the concerns which led to the initial application.
- I am satisfied that the above description of the exempt conduct is consistent with the intended use of the earlier exemptions and that the exemption as framed will meet the purposes described above.
- Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of people aged 22 years or under who would wish to hire the Harkaway Hall and who cannot satisfy the applicant about the matters listed above. I am satisfied that the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter).

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 50, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 13 August 2026.

HUMAN RIGHTS LIST
INTERIM EXEMPTION
Application No. H204/2021

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by International Women's Development Agency (the applicant). The application for an interim exemption is to enable the applicant to continue to advertise for and employ females in all roles within the applicant organisation (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Gemma Hardie, Director of Business Transformation, and her oral evidence given at the Directions Hearing on 12 August 2021, and having regard to earlier exemptions, and the current exemption which will expire on 20 September 2021, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an interim exemption from sections 16, 18, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to continue to engage in the exempt conduct for a further six months. This will enable the applicant to continue to provide services to women as a woman-only organisation, while also undertaking significant workforce and Board renewal.

In granting this interim exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is an international development agency working for the elimination of poverty and for the empowerment of women around the world. The applicant assists women internationally to develop skills and gain access to resources and promotes projects and programs which demonstrate women's competence and effectiveness as agents of development in agriculture, marketing, manufacturing, health, education, water supply, housing and other fields. The applicant is a non-profit organisation which undertakes development in partnership with women of other countries and gives priority to working with women who suffer poverty and oppression.
- It is important that female field workers be employed in the agency's international development projects because of cultural sensitivities in relation to the women in the countries where those projects are undertaken. Women in those countries will be more likely to communicate freely with the field workers if those workers are also women. Further, it is important to make local positions with the agency available to women only to encourage the self-development of Australian women and to provide them with additional career paths.
- Previous exemptions have been granted to the applicant in similar terms. The current exemption will expire on 20 September 2021. The circumstances and manner in which the applicant works have not altered in any way since the grant of that exemption. The applicant has applied for an interim exemption for six months from the date the current exemption expires.
- Pending the applicant making an application for a further five year exemption and the Tribunal's consideration of any such application if made, it is appropriate to grant an interim exemption as otherwise the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of males who would wish to be employed by the applicant. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this interim exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an interim exemption from the operation of sections 16, 18, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from 20 September 2021 until 20 March 2022.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LIST
EXEMPTION

Application No. H148/2021

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Juno Services Inc, formally the Women's Information Support and Housing in the North Inc (WISHIN) (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only women within the applicant organisation (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Jade Blakkarly and her oral evidence at the Directions Hearing on 12 August 2021, and having regard to earlier exemptions granted in 2006, 2009 and 2012, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant changed its name from Women's Information Support and Housing in the North Inc (WISHIN) to Juno Services Inc in October 2020. While the organisation has changed its name, it continues to provide the services previously provided by WISHIN.
- The applicant continues to provide services to support women experiencing homelessness, family violence, mental illness issues, poverty and trauma. The applicant has been providing these services under its own name or through other entities for more than 30 years.
- The applicant provides a range of onsite and offsite services. Offsite, front-line workers visit clients at home and provide outreach, take clients to appointments and liaise with organisations on clients' behalf. Onsite services are provided at the applicant's office and include a community safe space, group sessions such as wellbeing sessions, access to a kitchenette, computer room and children's play space. The applicant's office site is small, and while certain employees have regular face-to-face contact, given the limited space, all employees are required to be able to be the first point of contact for woman seeking services.
- In the applicant's view, it is important that this work be done in a safe trusting environment. Some of the women approach the service because they have been the victims of family violence and have specifically chosen a women's only service. Many women are from cultural backgrounds where it is inappropriate and/or very uncomfortable for them to approach a service where men may be present.
- The applicant is funded predominantly by the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing to provide services only to women.
- If men make contact with the applicant, they are referred to similar male only services.
- The applicant was granted an exemption in respect of the similar conduct in 2006, 2009 and 2012.
- While some of the applicant's services may be characterised as special services for special needs as set out in section 88 of the Act, and some of the front-line employment positions may come under the exception in section 28, I am not satisfied that all employment positions would come under the exceptions in the Act, and therefore, in the absence of an exemption, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- Given the target group for the services offered, and the limited office space in which onsite services are provided, I am satisfied the services offered by the applicant can most effectively be provided by an organisation that employs women only.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men who would wish to be employed by the applicant. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 13 August 2026.
