EXEMPTION
Application No. 45 of 1998

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal
constituted by the President pursuant to Section 182 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Fastleigh Workforce Inc. trading as Southern Youth Employment. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide pre-employment services, placement, and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15-39 years.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide pre-employment services, placement, and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15-39 years.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Southern Youth Employment is contracted by the Department of State Development to assist people aged 15-39 years into jobs.
- According to market statistics, youths aged 15 to 24 have less experience in the labour force and need specialised assistance in their job seeking skills.
- The 25-39 age group has been assessed by the Department of State Development as requiring some assistance. This group is often unskilled and on the long term unemployed list due to being unable to secure any post school educational qualifications, having few specialised skills to offer the market place in a competitive job seeker climate. The group also includes mothers moving back into the work place.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide pre-employment services, placement, and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15-39 years. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 24 June 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 54 of 1998

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 182 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Frances Carlisle Pty Ltd. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide education programs for women only at a centre called "The Nagle Education for Women".

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to provide education programs for women only at a centre called "The Nagle Education for Women".

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The program provides an education centre for women on low incomes who lack the opportunity and the finances to seek further education.
- The project is limited to women because it is seen that they have particular needs, not only in education of the general type, but also in the areas of parenting and personal development to cope with the deprivation of any support from a partner or family.
- The program offers women an opportunity to discover and develop their individual talents in an environment that promotes confidence, independence and personal fulfilment.
- Most of the people wishing to attend the program are single mothers or women who are alone in bringing up children.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to provide education programs for women only at a centre called "The Nagle Education for Women". This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 24 June 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 55 of 1998

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 182 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Council for Single Mothers and Their Children Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ single mothers in its work with single mothers and their children.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to employ single mothers in its work with single mothers and their children.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Council of Single Mothers and Their Children Inc. is a self-help group, run by and for single mothers and their children.
- Single mothers can offer a better service to other single mothers by virtue of their common experience. It is widely recognised that peer support is one of the most effective support mechanisms. Single mothers can empathise with and understand the issues that their peers experience more readily than women who are not single mothers.
- It is one of the cornerstones of self-help groups that their workers and/or volunteers come from the same group to whom they are targeting their services because of the enhanced ability they have to relate to and identify with service users.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to employ single mothers in its work with single mothers and their children. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 24 June 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 57 of 1998

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 182 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Western Metropolitan Youth Employment Project Inc. trading as Youth Employment Service Western Region ("YES West"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide pre-employment services, placement, and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15-39 years.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide pre-employment services, placement, and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15-39 years.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Western Metropolitan Youth Employment Project Inc. is an Incorporated Association which has received continuous funding over three years, from the Department of State Development's ("DSD") Community Business Employment Project.
- DSD also funds projects within the Outer Western Regions which specifically work with the "mature" category of unemployed people - aged 40 years and over.
- According to market statistics, youths aged 15 to 24 have less experience in the labour force and need specialised assistance in their job seeking skills.
- The 25-39 years group has been assessed by the Department of State Development as requiring some assistance. This group is often unskilled and on the long term unemployed list due to being unable to secure any post school educational qualifications, having few specialised skills to offer the market place in a competitive job seeker climate. The group also includes mothers moving back into the work place

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide pre-employment services, placement, and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15-39 years. ### Accident Compensation Act 1985

NOTICE OF INDEXED BENEFIT LEVELS AND OTHER AMOUNTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 100 OF THE ACCIDENT COMPENSATION ACT 1985

Section 100 (1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 stipulates that amounts in Part IV and in Section 5A of the Act are varied on 1 July each year in line with the movement in the average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the two previous December quarters, using the latest figures published by the Australian Statistician as at 30 May following the previous December quarter. Weekly payments are indexed on the anniversary of the entitlement to weekly payments as detailed in Section 100(2) of the Act.

The average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the December quarter of 1996 and the December quarter 1997 increased from $577.50 to $600.60 which is an increase of 4.0%.

Following legislative changes in December 1997 some sections are indexed by the rise in CPI. The Consumer Price Index between the December quarter of 1996 and the December quarter of 1997 decreased from 119.9 to 119.8. No adjustment is necessary for negative CPI movement.

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
